EXPLANATION OF ABSENCE

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I hereby request permission to be absent from the House Session on Thursday, February 16.

I have received a request from President Carter to be present at a meeting at the White House to consider Public Pensions on said date.

As you know I have served two (2) years as Chairman on a Task Force on Public Pensions for the National Conference of State Legislators. I am sure that it is in this connection that I received my invitation.

JOHN T. BRAGG

P.S. In order to make my flight and because of the length of the Session on Wednesday, it was necessary for me to miss the second roll call.

I would appreciate you having this letter spread upon the Journal.
